Keith Raniere's lawyer asked for the judge in the case to recuse himself for being biased, citing one of the most bizarre moments in court I've ever seen in which a lawyer was told by the judge to go cry about a funeral for a colleague who had just died of pancreatic cancer

In proceedings was a bizarre approximate thirty minute exchange at each other.⁵ Despite Judge Garaufis' claimed excuse of his Sixth Amendment right to confront the government's man, during jury trial - that he was a "human being" "before 7:16 - 2270:11, it is fair to say that Judge Garaufis' humiliated role in denying Mr. Fernich a one-hour delay in the end a friend and colleague's funeral and shiva. Judge Garaufis attacks against Mr. Fernich because Mr. Fernich was "warranted" notable that the Court denied Mr. Fernich's request for a good friend. However, the Court was willing to waste time and money, doing nothing.⁶ Thus, there can be no excuse that
